

Salmon Family (have adipose fin)

Small scales

brown trout: black spots with pale haloes rainbow trout: black spots without pale haloes bull trout: no black spots on body or fins

Large scales

mountain whitefish: top of dorsal fin does not extend beyond back of fin when fin is flattened lake whitefish: Top of dorsal fin extends beyond back of fin when fin is flattened

Minnow Family (no adipose fin)

longnose dace: tip of upper jaw extends well past lower jaw lake chub: first ray in dorsal fin is a full ray, barbels (small whiskers) present on each side of upper jaw fathead minnow: first ray in dorsal fin is a half ray, black vertical line in front of caudal fin

Sucker Family (have thick fleshy lips)

longnose sucker: scales increase in size from the head (smallest) to the caudal fin (largest)

white sucker: scales uniform in size across the body longnose sucker

mountain sucker